DESIROUS of supplying the large and continually increasing demand for the complete series of the Review in 12 vols., now exhausted, and which it would require a very large outlay to reprint, the editor has been induced to make a selection of all the important and valuable papers contained in them from the beginning, condensing, rearranging, and completing to date, and throwing the subjects, after the manner of the encyclopædians, into alphabetical order. In this manner everything of interest and importance will be preserved in a convenient form for reference; and the volumes will constitute the only repository for the shelves of the library, of such information, which, by means of the monthly numbers hereafter, will always be brought down to date.

The volumes will embrace the gist of everything that has appeared in the Review relating to the Southern and Western States, (an imperfect index of which will be found at the opening of the 10th volume.) to wit:

PROSPECTUS OF "THE MEDICM,"

A Newspaper to be published Daily and Weekly in New York and Washington City.

Such has been the progress of sectional feeling, that a mutual exchange of opinion between the North and the South has become indispensable to quiet the public mind and restore mutual confidence and good will.

With this view, it is proposed to publish in New York and Washington City, a daily and weekly on the South This Loan is guaranteed by the Government, and contracted by the eminent Banking House of MESSRS, M. A. VON ROTHSCHILD AND SONS, in Frankfort-on the-Main. The following

With this view, it is proposed to publish in New York and Washington City, a daily and weekly Newspaper, in which the ablest writers of both sections may present the facts and arguments upon which they rely, in support of the interests and institutions of each, under the hope that such a paper, conducted with fairness, moderation, and candor, and with an earnest desire to subdue sectional prejudice, will obtain extensive circulation, and exert a beneficial influence.

Part of the plan is to invite, by an offer of premiums, prize essays on the subjects of British

Part of the plan is to invite, by an offer of premiums, prize essays on the aubjects of British Abolition, British Commerce, British Finance, British Banking, and British Diplomacy, and also on the American Tariff, American Commerce, American Banka, American Currency, and African Slavery. These questions, it is hoped will put in requisition the ablest pens of the whole country, and give to "Tark Madnum" an interest and character which will secure for it a support commensurate with the expenditure necessarily incurred.

To the cotton, sugar, rice, and to bacco planters, we look confidently for support; and to the friends of "direct trade" throughout the South we say, "show your faith by your works."

The regular issue of the "Corron Plant" will commence in June next. Advertisements are particularly requested to be forwarded early. Business letters addressed to C. G. Baylor, Washington city, D. C.

Correspondence from all interested in the cause we advocate is solicited, particularly as to the crop, as we wish to give correct information on the subject which is of so much importance to the planter, and in representing which he has been so often injured.

Postmasters are requested to act as agents for us; and to all who approve our cause we look for good feeling, kindness, and support.

Terms: Two dollars a year, in advance.
